Permeable pavers are specially made pavers that fit together in herringbone, basket weave or other patterns, leaving open space for eco-friendly water permeability.

The openings, called voids, are filled with gravel or grass, which allow rainwater, even heavy rainfall, to soak into the earth. Permeable Pavers expand surfaces often times when other products are not allowed.

Reclaimed Wood

Adding wood outdoors is an excellent way to add warmth to your outdoor living spaces.

Pagodas are elements that not only offer function with shade and cover, but also lend another dimension to your area.

Customer favorites such as decking and outdoor showers are a necessity for the home that wants the natural look of wood balanced with stone features outside.

PAGODAS

A pagoda is an attractive alternative to an awning or large umbrella for those days when you need relief from the sun. Often placed over a patio, next to a pool, or over a hot tub or outdoor kitchen, a quality pagoda can increase the value of your house and makes those outdoor gatherings even more enjoyable.

Offered as kits or installed models with permits.
